

Economic Development Specialist
Sharonville, Ohio

The City of Sharonville, Ohio, Building & Planning Department is seeking qualified candidates for the unclassified, exempt, full time position of Economic Development Specialist. This position will administer recruitment and retention programs and related activities of economic interest to the City of Sharonville. Minimum qualifications include a Bachelor's Degree in business administration, public administration, marketing economics, planning, political science, or similar discipline, with 2 years experience in governmental or private industry economic development or related activities, or equivalent combination of education and experience.

Candidate must have a valid driver's license, be self-motivated, highly energetic and capable of handling multiple tasks. Pay range is $49,961– $71,177 DOQ with a competitive benefit package. Applications and job description may be obtained at the Sharonville Municipal Building, 10900 Reading Road, Rm.195, Sharonville, Ohio 45241 or online at www.sharonville.org. Deadline to return applications with resumes is 4 PM on February 24, 2012. Address all applications along with resumes to the Building and Planning Department at the above address. No phone calls please. EOE.